SciFinder Registration

As a SciFinder user, you can create your own username and password using a registration form. The URL for the form is provided by your institution's SciFinder administrator or librarian.

The registration form must be used from an IP address authorized by the SciFinder administrator or librarian. If you access SciFinder via proxy server or VPN, please contact your SciFinder Administrator or your institution's librarian for the appropriate SciFinder URL.

After you submit the form, CAS sends you an email message with instructions for completing the registration process. Therefore, you must have an e-mail address with your institution's e-mail domain.

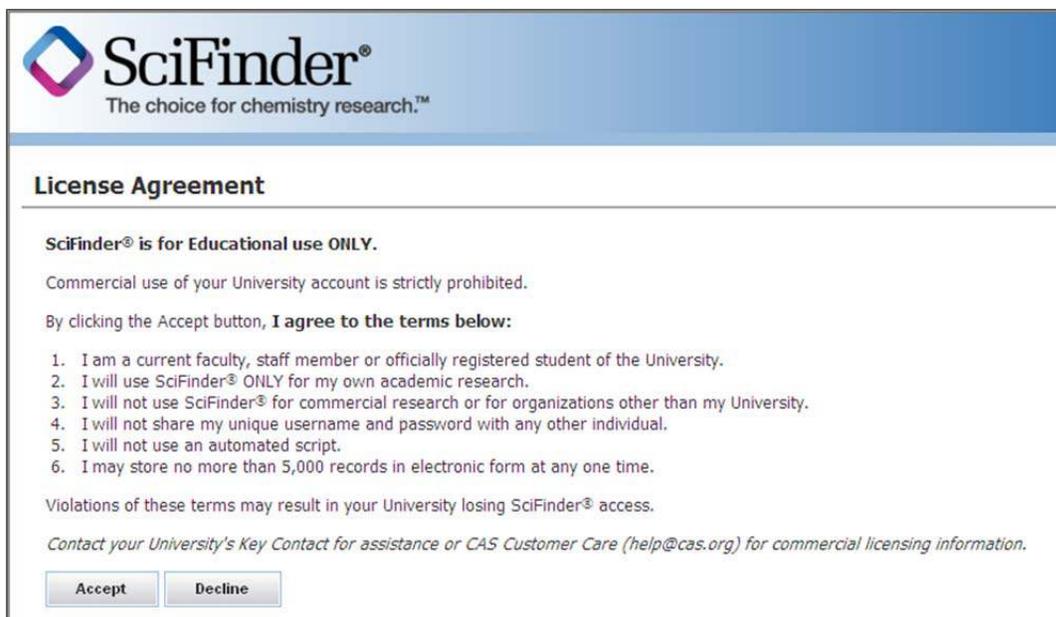

An overview of the registration process is shown below.

REGISTERING FOR YOUR SCIFINDER ACCOUNT

1. Use the URL provided by your SciFinder administrator to access the SciFinder registration form. Click Next.

2. Click Accept if you agree to the License Agreement; click Decline if you do not.

License Agreement

SciFinder® is for Educational use ONLY.
Commercial use of your University account is strictly prohibited.

By clicking the Accept button, I agree to the terms below:

1. I am a current faculty, staff member or officially registered student of the University.
2. I will use SciFinder® ONLY for my own academic research.
3. I will not use SciFinder® for commercial research or for organizations other than my University.
4. I will not share my unique username and password with any other individual.
5. I will not use an automated script.
6. I may store no more than 5,000 records in electronic form at any one time.

Violations of these terms may result in your University losing SciFinder® access.

Contact your University's Key Contact for assistance or CAS Customer Care (help@cas.org) for commercial licensing information.

3. Enter your contact information. While only your name and email address are required, the additional information will help CAS better understand SciFinder users, allowing us to improve the products and services we offer.
